Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
(Rev. March 1986)

OMB No. 1545-0056
Expires 3-31-89
To be filed in the key district for the area in which the organization has its principal office or place of business.

This application, when properly completed, constitutes the notice required under section 508(a) of the Internal Revenue Code so that an applicant may be treated as described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and the notice required under section 508(b) for an organization claiming not to be a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a). (Read the instructions for each part carefully before making any entries.) If required information, a conformed copy of the organizing and operational documents, or financial data are not furnished, the application will not be considered on its merits and the organization will be notified accordingly. Do not file this application if the applicant has no organizing instrument (see Part II).

RIVER VALLEY CHILD DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

BY-LAWS

Article I Mission

The mission of River Valley Child Development Services is to offer developmentally appropriate experiences which will enhance the quality of children's lives. We believe that it is the inherent right of all families to receive support in assisting their children to reach their full developmental potential.

River Valley Child Development Services is dedicated to excellence in programming, staff development, and administration. We strive to provide high quality services needed by children in the communities served by River Valley, and to offer technical services to others serving children.

River Valley endeavors to work with other relevant agencies and personnel from other disciplines in serving children and families. Every effort is made to coordinate existing services and to leave no family without available resources.

River Valley Child Development Services explores every available financial resource in order to secure funding for services needed by children and families.

Article II Purpose and Responsibilities

The purpose of the River Valley Board is to oversee the administration of any projects or contractual grants as may be awarded to River Valley Child Development Services. The Board is responsible for establishing mission, conceptual planning, monitoring progress toward established goals and objectives, and fiscal management. The River Valley Board will employ an executive director to administer the projects.

Section I. The Board will:

- 1) Be eligible as a prime grantee for funds;
- 2) Determine the general scope of programs;
- 3) Set policies;
- 4) Approve annual budgets submitted by the Executive Director.

5) Serve as an Appeal Board when grievance hearings are requested by staff; and

6) Maintain liaison with other organizations, in order to insure joint planning efforts.

Article III Membership

Section I. The River Valley Board will be made up of up to twenty voting members:

1) One representative appointed by the superintendent of schools of the county board of education which serves as fiscal agent for the agency.

2) A representative from each of the higher education institutions in River Valley (COGS, Marshall University, University of Charleston and West Virginia State). These representatives will be appointed by the presidents of their respective institutions.

3) One representative of health related services appointed by the Secretary of Health and Human Resources;

4) One representative of human welfare appointed by the Secretary of Health and Human Resources;

5) One representative appointed by the Director of a regional mental health facility located in an area served by River Valley;

6) Two parent representatives from programs administered by the River Valley Board. One parent will represent center based programs and one parent will represent home-based programs. One of the parent representatives will be the parent of a handicapped child. Parent representatives will be recommended by a staff committee to the Board of Directors and selected by the Board to serve as long as their children remain in a River Valley program.
